Worship on Labor Day Weekend – September 5

By Pastor David Tinker

Mark your calendars now. Sunday, September 5. Labor Day Sunday worship and meal. Worship on Sunday at 10 a.m. in the fellowship hall. Potluck meal to follow. Main dish, chicken spaghetti, and drinks provided. You are invited to bring a side, bread, salad or dessert to share. Come to enjoy the fellowship on this special, holiday weekend. Also note, we will have our regular Saturday worship service in the sanctuary at 6 p.m. on September 4.

To celebrate this blessing of vocation we will be taking the Sunday of Labor Day weekend to give thanks for the blessings of daily bread, of work, of school, of family, etc. To enhance our time together you are invited to wear the clothes or uniform of your current or pre-retirement vocation. Younger folks are encouraged to dress in the manner of those in your aspired for vocation. No matter what, know that we will be giving thanks for and honoring all that God has called each of us to do as part of his greater work in the world. Know that who each of us is and what God has called and equipped each of us to do is important. On this special Sunday we will take time to give thanks for all which God calls and equips us to do.

Sunday, September 5 (Labor Day Weekend), is a Holy Day of sorts for all of us. We know that Labor Day is a civic holiday to celebrate the opportunity for work and the contribution of the Labor movement to life in our nation. As Lutheran Christians we go deeper with this and view all work as part of God's calling and his provision of our daily bread. All Christians are doing the work of God, regardless of where or what they do in their honorable vocation in life.

Several years ago, I discovered a concise statement written by a fellow Lutheran pastor regarding the Lutheran Christian understanding of vocation. Here is an excerpt of what Pastor Samuel Schuldheisz, now of Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church (LC-MS) of Milton, WA, writes, "... our earthly vocations or "stations in life" as Luther called them are fruits of our heavenly calling as God's children in baptism. The purpose of vocation is to love and serve the neighbor in the particular stations in life that God has called us to whether we are a husband, wife, father, mother, son, daughter, teacher, student, etc. We don't live life hidden in a corner. This was the danger of many priests and monks in the Reformation era. Many taught that the highest form of Christian living was to become a monk and live in a monastery. Luther wrote extensively against this false teaching as he re-discovered the doctrine of vocation and began to teach and preach about its necessity in the Christian life. Luther taught that on one level, there is no difference between monk and magistrate or priest and plumber. Each Christian is called according to God's Word and Spirit, regardless of what their status in society is. This means that God's calling of a Roadkill Collector is just as holy as God's calling to be a pastor.

The difference is the office and duties that are unique to each vocation. For example, the pastoral office is not the office of schoolteacher, just as the office of father is not the same as the office of mother. Each vocation, or calling from God, has particular and unique duties attached to it. This is how God works in, with, and under the ordinary means of this life to accomplish His good and gracious will, physically and spiritually."

Upbring

Krause Children's Center

It is with great sadness that Krause Children's Center has announced it's closing and decided to close its doors after serving our most vulnerable and at-risk youth since the late 90s. It was not an easy decision but with the changing climate of our foster care system and the push to eliminate Residential Treatment Center's, it was decided that it would be best to close our doors and restructure. I don't have much information, but I wanted to give you the heads up that Krause has closed as of today.

The good news is that our major non-profit Upbring is still serving youth that has experienced abuse and neglect. We have a sister facility, New Life, that serves girls ages 11-17. They are located in Canyon Lake, Texas. I know that is a drive for some of you all, but they could use your support.

No kidding

Whatever our age, God calls us to model holy living for others.
